Pelican Ventures Book Group announces Book of the Year Award Win

Aztec, NM – April 19, 2012 – Nicola Martinez, Publisher and Editor-in-Chief for Pelican Book Group, a Pelican Ventures company, announced today that novel, HEARTS COMMUNION, by Marianne Evans has won the Christian Small Publishers Association's Book of the Year Award in the Romance category. More information on the Book of the Year contest may be found at the Christian Small Publishers Association's website.

HEARTS COMMUNION, which is part of the Woodland Church series penned by Ms. Evans and released under the White Rose Publishing imprint, is currently available for sale at retail outlets as well as publisher-direct. Other books in the critically-acclaimed series include HEARTS SURRENDER and HEARTS KEY. The series is an offshoot of Ms. Evans's short story HEARTS CROSSING, also still available in electronic formats.

Pelican Book Group publishes Christian fiction in a variety of sub-genres and story-lengths. White Rose Publishing imprint in particular publishes romance in lengths ranging from 10,000-word short stories to 80,000-word novels. Formats are electronic and print. Free reads offered on the site, as well as exclusive free reads for the public Pelican Book Group readers' loop are indicative of the types of stories that can be found in the Pelican Book Group catalogue.
