

Discussion Questions

JANE DOE

Author: Lillian Duncan

ISBN (e): 9781522302759

ISBN (tp): 9781522302766

Imprint: Harbourlight Books

Publisher: Pelican Book Group

Pages: 293

eBook SRP: 5.99

Also Available in Paperback:

About the Book

A Broken Body. A Broken Mind. What If She Wasn't The Last Victim?

Raven Marks survives a brutal kidnapping but just barely. Along with a broken body, her mind is broken. She wants to put the past behind her, but nightmarish memories won't let her. . .At first because she doesn't have them, and then because she does.

Even though her fractured memory can't recall every detail, she's haunted by one thought: What if she wasn't the last victim? Her search for answers leads her to the highest politicians in the land. Each reclaimed memory brings her closer to the truth—and to even more danger.

TITLE: Jane Doe
Discussion:

Question 1: Do you think Raven has a moral responsibility to do whatever she can to find her kidnapper? Why or Why not?

Answer 1: Various

Question 2: Do you believe God's Word has the power to overcome any of life's circumstances?

Answer 2: Yes

Question 3: Do you think Amanda was too bossy and controlling? Why or Why Not?

Answer 3: No. She was a caring sister.

Question 4: Do you think Gracie had an obligation to tell the Secret Service agents where Raven was?

Answer 4: Various

Question 5: Was it wrong of Raven not to tell her friends and family that her memory was coming back or about the book she'd written?

Answer 5: No, she has a right to her privacy.

Question 6: Was Gracie right when she talked about secrets turning into shame?

Answer 6: Possibly

Question 7: What's the difference between transparency and privacy?

Answer 7: Various

Question 8: Should Martha be held responsible because she'd never told anyone what Charles had done to her? Did she have an obligation to tell?

Answer 8: No. Only he's responsible for his actions.

