About the Book

FBI Special Agent Devyn Nash is obsessed with taking down Coterie, a deadly group out to control the multi-billion-dollar-a-year diet-product industry. The FBI's plan to expose Coterie places Devyn's best friend and her partner's fiancé in the crosshairs of this ruthless organization. Can Devyn protect her friend and bring the coldblooded killers to justice before they strike again while distracted by injury, a sexist bully, and a long-distance relationship with a handsome Wyoming sheriff?

Lobbyist and Coterie assassin Sofia Wilks wants nothing more than to regain control of her life. Sofia knows Devyn is nipping at her heels, but the FBI agent isn't the worst of her fears. She is drawn to a man who has the power to destroy her.

Discussion:

Question 1: If you weren't a writer, what would you be?

Answer 1: I've spent most of my adult life working for the National Park Service. It's given me the opportunity to live and work in some amazing places.

Question 2: What's your favorite season and why?

Answer 2: Definitely summer, I like long days with plenty of sunshine. I love to garden and recreate outside

Question 3: What's your favorite comfort food?

Answer 3: My husband makes killer homemade baked macaroni and cheese. If you've only had mac and cheese out of a box, you have no idea what you're missing.

Question 4: What type of books do you write?

Answer 4: I write suspense and action adventure, with a bit of romance. Love makes people do things they wouldn't normally do, which always increases the tension and suspense.

Question 5: When did you begin writing?

Answer 5: I dabbled with creative writing in high school, but I began writing seriously nearly 25 years ago. My husband was fighting forest fires and he was out for up to 21 days at a time. We were living in a remote cabin with no phone and no television. Writing novels was a perfect pastime.

Question 6: What are your hobbies away from the computer?

Answer 6: I enjoy gardening, exploring new cuisine, and spending time with family. I'm also a major travel junkie.

Question 7: How do you come up with ideas?

Answer 7: I come up with a lot of ideas through travel, although my adventurous childhood in Wyoming has lent itself well to creativity. I'm proof that country kids have an especially active imagination.

Question 8: Do you have a favorite author(s)?

Answer 8: I really enjoy the adventure and suspense in Clive Cussler novels, especially his Dirk Pitt series. I also enjoy James Rollins.

Question 9: How many books have you published?

Answer 9 A Foundation of Fear is the third in the Risky Research Series and my tenth novel.

Question 10: What do you hope readers take with them after reading your work?

Answer 10: My goal is simply to entertain readers with adventures, stories of survival, and happily-ever-after endings. We can't all have adventurous lives, but we can most certainly live vicariously through characters in books.
