About the Book

First Responder Ronnie Spencer has a no-dating-firefighters rule. She lost her father to a fire, and won't risk the heartbreak of losing someone else. But when Steve McNeal returns, Ronnie's heart is tested. How can she swear-off dating a firefighter when she has to work with the one man she used to love?

When the unthinkable happens, Ronnie has doubts. How can a loving God allow tragedy to stalk her life again? As her faith wavers, Ronnie must decide. Will their blossoming relationship be quickly extinguished by the very thing she feared, or will Ronnie trust God and allow her heart to be rescued--even if that means giving it to a firefighter?

TITLE: Rescue Me

Discussion:

Question 1: Ronnie was too afraid to love a firefighter. Why?

Answer 1: After her firefighter dad died in a fire, she couldn't take the chance to have to bear the pain again if she were to lose someone that way.

Question 2: Is fear a logical answer to denying yourself love?

Answer 2: No. We need to cherish the moments that take our breath away.

Question 3: Could Steve had done anything different or should he have?

Answer 3: Not if he wanted to protect others from the same fate as Frank.

Question 4: What can guilt and dwelling on loss do to a person?

Answer 4: Eat them up inside affecting the way you treat others.

Question 5: How hard would it be for you to work with someone you had feelings for?

Answer 5: (personal answer)

Question 6: How could Debra forgive so easily?

Answer 6: She didn't blame anyone else for what she got herself into.

Question 7: Did Steve do the right thing by trying to force Ronnie to love Christmas again?

Answer 7: Not necessarily, but he was fortunate it didn't backfire more.

Question 8: Why was Troy so obnoxious?

Answer 8: Trying to prove something to himself and others that he could do anything.

Question 9: Have you ever had an epiphany moment like Ronnie had at the base of the rock wall?

Answer 9 (personal answer)

Question 10: When we allow God to do the healing, what results?

Answer 10: Blessings.
