About the Book

Nia Johnson has spent the past four years developing a closer relationship to God. She wants to believe she's still anointed to become a healer at Puzzle House, but as each year passes, she has more and more doubts.

Now that she's graduated from high school and is an adult, she is sure it's time to take the mantle of healing Rachel passed to her so many years ago. Nia thought her learning years—her David Years—were over, but the harder she tries to move forward, the more her destiny seems to elude her.

TITLE: The David Years

Discussion:

Question 1: How does a Christian become ready for their ministry?

Answer 1: Life experiences and Bible study

Question 2: When does a person know they are ready to begin their ministry?

Answer 2: They don't; must step out in faith.

Question 3: What's the most important thing for Christians to have victory in their own lives?

Answer 3: Obedience to God

Question 4: Can you give an example from the book where Nia felt she was doing the right thing but in reality it wasn't? How can you make sure that doesn't happen in your own life?

Answer 4: By studying the Bible and being obedient to God's Word.

Question 5: Nia and Bart come from different races and backgrounds. Do you think that matters?

Answer 5: Various answers

Question 6: Too often, young people think a little "fun" won't hurt them. What's a good way to teach them, that's not true?

Answer 6: By talking about your own mistakes and regrets.
