About the Book

Johnny Rocker believes he doesn't need anyone or anything—especially God. After all, he is a rock & roll god. When the floor beneath his feet crumbles—literally—he hurtles toward a different truth.

Since the death of Maddie's family, she's run from life and love and become the best bodyguard she can be. But, with God's help, she's ready to step out of her comfort zone and into a different life. When her boss asks—no begs—her to take on one last job, she finds it hard to refuse. Someone is trying to kill mega-star Johnny Rocker. It's Maddie Cotton's job to make sure that doesn't happen.

Even under Maddie's protection the threats continue. As Christmas approaches, the danger escalates—someone doesn't want Johnny Rocker to see the new year, and they are willing to kill Maddie as well. Johnny and Maddie will have to set aside their differences and learn to lean on each other and God if they want to see Christmas day.

Discussion:

Question 1: Do you think someone like a rock & roll star can maintain their Christian standards? Why or why not?

Answer 1: Yes, but it would be difficult.

Question 2: Even before Johnny finds out someone is trying to kill him, he seems unhappy. Why do you think that's true?

Answer 2: He has fame and money, but no one close to him.

Question 3: Do you think Johnny has to give up being a rock star when he renews his faith?

Answer 3: NO. And in fact, he could be quite influential by not giving it up.

Question 4: Maddie was determined to refuse the job until she saw the word, Ninevah. Do you believe God still gives us signs such as that?

Answer 4: Various

Question 5: Maddie and Zeb are opposites. Why are opposites attracted to each other?

Answer 5: Various
